Quintinha de Chã - Rustic piece of land with concrete building and well

Rustic property located in the forest and hills near Sarzedas. The total area is 6840 m² and is playfully divided into different parts. The main part consists of a concrete building of around 20 m² with recent roof in good condition, flat land for cultivation with olive and orange trees, a well and the land is bordered with a seasonal river. Next to the building (not registered) is a water tank. This main part is facing south-east, perfect for cultivation and living.

If we follow the property up hill, we find another part (around 4000 m²) that is north facing. There is currently no vegetation on this part. It can also be used for cultivation or placing a temporary structure.

Very quiet location, just outside a hamlet, surrounded by nature. Good access by tarmac road. 7,5 kms from Sarzedas with council services, post office, ATM (cash machine), BTT center, garden
