Talha do Ocreza - Unspoiled 5 hectare property with ruin, bordering a river

Unspoiled property of 5,13 hectares (51,300 m² / 12,6 acres) bordering at the bottom 140 meters with the Ocreza river that runs all year round. There are small water falls and deep parts where you can take a dip to cool off in summer. The land is steep and decorated with small and big granite boulders. Many olive trees, strawberry trees and oak trees are spread around the land. A ruin in granite stone to recuperate. A tiny house is being built of 2,5 x 3,75m with a loft and a decking of the same size as the house. It will be sold with solar panels and wood burner.

Water can be managed by the use of water tanks and by collection of the streams of rain water that comes down the hill.
